

Nectar of Gods

Duration: 8 hours.

Driving along the Chianti road, you will feel like you're in a living painting: the rows of vines, the olive trees and the oaks, the undulating hills dotted with limestone farmhouses or hamlets; all seems to inspire joy and invites relaxation.

The Chianti, name given to the wine region between Florence and Siena, offers some of the most beautiful countryside in Italy. Especially from the castles, perched on the highest hills, in defensive position, you can admire the breathtaking views so typical of calendars and postcards of Tuscany: San Gimignano. With the local guide you will visit the cellars, learn about how they make their own wines: the Chianti Classico, the Chianti Riserva and the Super Tuscans.

Lunch and wine tasting cost is 25 euros per person not included.
